DAY-WISE ITINERARY

DAY 1 Dharchula to Nabi/Gunji Village

On the first day, depart from Dharchula early in the morning, embarking on a scenic drive through the mountainous terrain with breathtaking views of the Kali River and surrounding peaks. By afternoon, arrive at Nabi or Gunji Village, nestled in the heart of the Himalayas. Settle into your cozy homestay, where you will experience warm hospitality and enjoy traditional Kumaoni meals. In the evening, explore the village, interact with the locals, or simply relax and take in the serene mountain atmosphere. The night will be spent at the homestay in Nabi/Gunji.

DAY 2 Adi Kailash, Parvati Sarovar, Gauri Kund, Bheem ki Kheti, Brahma Parvat (all Darshan and Sightseeing)

Start the day early with a visit to Adi Kailash, also known as Chota Kailash, a sacred mountain revered by pilgrims. The morning continues with a visit to Parvati Sarovar, a serene high-altitude lake, followed by darshan at Gaurikund, a site of significant religious importance. In the afternoon, journey to Bheem ki Kheti, a unique landscape associated with the Mahabharata, and Brahma Parvat, a peak named after the creator deity. Return to your homestay in Nabi/Gunji by evening to relax and enjoy a traditional dinner. The night will be spent at the homestay in Nabi/Gunji.

DAY 3 Nabidhang Om Parvat Darshan, Kali Mata Temple, Return to Dharchula

On the final day, depart early for Nabidhang to witness the majestic Om Parvat, where the natural snow formation resembles the sacred 'Om' symbol. Following this, visit the nearby Kali Mata Temple, a revered shrine dedicated to the goddess Kali. In the afternoon, begin the journey back to Dharchula, retracing your route through the stunning Himalayan landscape. The tour concludes with your arrival in Dharchula by evening.
