DAY-WISE ITINERARY

DAY 1 Pithoragarh to Dharchula

The journey begins with a scenic drive from Pithoragarh to Dharchula, a quaint border town along the banks of the Kali River. This drive showcases the natural beauty of the region, winding through lush valleys and dense forests. Upon arrival in Dharchula, travelers can explore the town’s charm and enjoy a comfortable overnight stay to rest and acclimate for the upcoming pilgrimage.

DAY 2 Dharchula to Nabi/Gunji Village (Rest Day)

On Day 2, the tour proceeds from Dharchula to Nabi or Gunji village, both peaceful hamlets nestled in the mountains. These villages serve as an essential stopover for acclimatization, allowing travelers to adjust to the higher altitude while taking in the views and learning about the local culture. After reaching the village, the remainder of the day is reserved for rest and preparation for the following day's journey to Adi Kailash. Overnight stay is arranged at a local homestay or guesthouse.

DAY 3 Adi Kailash Darshan

The third day begins with a visit to Adi Kailash, often referred to as Chhota Kailash due to its resemblance to Mount Kailash. The journey includes stops at sacred sites such as Parwati Sarovar, a serene lake associated with the goddess Parvati, and Gauri Kund, where pilgrims can engage in quiet reflection. Additional highlights include Bheem ki Kheti, a lush area said to have connections to the Mahabharata, along with views of Ganesh Parvat and Pandav Parvat. These revered sites offer a combination of natural beauty and spiritual significance, making it a memorable day.

DAY 4 Om Parvat, Nandi Parvat, Nag Parvat, and Kali Mata Temple

Day 4 is dedicated to experiencing the grandeur of Om Parvat, where the snow formations on the mountain naturally resemble the Hindu symbol "Om." This visual spectacle is a powerful sight for devotees and an unforgettable moment in the journey. Travelers will also witness Nandi Parvat and Nag Parvat, each offering unique scenic and spiritual perspectives. The day concludes with a visit to the Kali Mata Temple, a revered shrine for many locals and pilgrims, before returning to Dharchula for an overnight stay.

DAY 5 Dharchula to Pithoragarh

The tour wraps up with a drive back to Pithoragarh, marking the end of this spiritually uplifting journey. The return drive allows travelers to reflect on the experiences and sights from the past days, carrying memories and blessings from Adi Kailash, Om Parvat, and the surrounding sacred sites.
