DAY-WISE ITINERARY

DAY 1 Delhi to Pithoragarh

Your journey begins with a scenic drive from Delhi to Pithoragarh, the gateway to the Kumaon Himalayas. As you leave behind the bustling city, the landscape transitions into serene valleys, winding roads, and lush greenery. Upon reaching Pithoragarh, check into your accommodation and relax. Spend the evening at leisure, soaking in the tranquil surroundings and preparing for the spiritual adventure ahead.

DAY 2 Pithoragarh to Dharchula

After breakfast, set out on a beautiful drive to Dharchula, a quaint town near the India-Nepal border. The journey takes you through mesmerizing valleys, dense forests, and charming villages. Upon arrival, check into your accommodation and take some time to explore the town’s unique culture and scenic beauty. Dharchula serves as an important base for pilgrims heading towards Adi Kailash, making it a significant stop on your itinerary.

DAY 3 Dharchula to Nabi/Gunji Village

Begin your day early and proceed toward Nabi or Gunji Village, depending on your accommodation arrangements. The drive is a breathtaking experience, with views of towering peaks, cascading waterfalls, and pristine rivers. En route, complete the required formalities at the check posts. On arrival at the village, settle into a homestay and enjoy the hospitality of the local people. The village offers a tranquil atmosphere and serves as an ideal base for exploring Adi Kailash and Om Parvat.

DAY 4 Adi Kailash, Parwati Sarovar, and Gauri Kund Darshan and Sightseeing

Today is the highlight of your journey as you embark on a spiritual visit to Adi Kailash, also known as Chhota Kailash. Begin the day with a trek or drive to the sacred site, where the majestic Adi Kailash peak stands tall. Visit the serene Parwati Sarovar, a crystal-clear lake surrounded by breathtaking landscapes, and Gauri Kund, a place of deep spiritual significance. Spend time absorbing the tranquility of the area and taking in the stunning vistas before returning to your village for the night.

DAY 5 Om Parvat and Return to Pithoragarh

Start early for a visit to Om Parvat, a sacred peak where the natural snow formations resemble the sacred 'Om' symbol. The journey to Om Parvat is awe-inspiring, with every turn offering panoramic views of the Himalayas. After paying your respects and soaking in the divine atmosphere, begin your return journey to Pithoragarh. On arrival, relax at your accommodation and reflect on the spiritual experiences of the day.

DAY 6 Pithoragarh to Patal Bhuvneshwar

After breakfast, proceed to Patal Bhuvneshwar, a mystical underground cave temple. The journey takes you through serene landscapes and picturesque hamlets. Upon reaching Patal Bhuvneshwar, explore the cave, which is adorned with fascinating stalactites and stalagmites that hold deep mythological significance. After the visit, check into your accommodation and unwind amidst the serene surroundings.

DAY 7 Jageshwar Temple and Chitai Golu Temple, Overnight Stay at Almora

Begin the day with a visit to the Jageshwar Temple complex, an ancient site dedicated to Lord Shiva. Explore the intricate stone carvings and soak in the spiritual ambiance of this revered place. Continue your journey to the Chitai Golu Temple, famous for its thousands of bells tied by devotees. Later, drive to Almora, where you can enjoy the charm of this hill town. Check into your accommodation for an overnight stay.

DAY 8 Almora to Delhi (Enroute Kainchi Temple)

On the final day of your journey, start early and drive back to Delhi. En route, stop at the Kainchi Dham Temple, a spiritual retreat made famous by Neem Karoli Baba. After seeking blessings and enjoying the serene surroundings, continue your drive to Delhi. Arrive in the evening with cherished memories of a spiritually fulfilling journey to Adi Kailash and Om Parvat.
