DAY-WISE ITINERARY

DAY 1 Kathgodam to Pithoragarh

The journey begins with a drive from Kathgodam to Pithoragarh. Along the way, you will visit Kainchi Dham, a serene temple and ashram complex nestled in the hills. The next stop is Chitai Golu Devta Temple, known for its unique tradition of offering bells to fulfill wishes. The final visit of the day is to the Jageshwar Dham Temple, an ancient complex of 124 temples dedicated to Lord Shiva, set amidst deodar forests. After these spiritual visits, you will continue to Pithoragarh for an overnight stay

DAY 2 Medical Formalities and Drive to Dharchula

The day begins with medical check-ups and obtaining inner line permits required for the yatra. Once all formalities are completed, you will embark on a drive to Dharchula. This town, situated on the banks of the Kali River, serves as a key stop for pilgrims and trekkers heading towards the higher Himalayas. You will spend the night in Dharchula, preparing for the journey ahead.

DAY 3 Dharchula to Gunji/Nabi Village

From Dharchula, you will travel to Gunji or Nabi Village. This drive takes you through scenic landscapes and offers glimpses of the Himalayan terrain. Gunji, a small village near the Indo-Nepal border, serves as a crucial point on the pilgrimage route. The day concludes with an overnight stay in the village, allowing you to acclimatize to the altitude.

DAY 4 Adi Kailash, Parvati Sarovar, Gauri Kund, and Bheem ki Kheti

Day 4 is dedicated to the darshan and sightseeing of Adi Kailash, Parvati Sarovar, Gauri Kund, and Bheem ki Kheti. Adi Kailash, also known as Chhota Kailash, is revered as a sacred mountain resembling Mount Kailash. Parvati Sarovar and Gauri Kund are holy lakes associated with Goddess Parvati, offering tranquil and picturesque settings. Bheem ki Kheti is known for its mythological significance. After a spiritually enriching day, you will return to Gunji/Nabi Village for the night.

DAY 5 Kailash Darshan from Lipulekh, Om Parvat, and Kali Mata Temple

On this day, you will have the opportunity to witness Kailash Darshan from Lipulekh Pass, which offers a distant but clear view of Mount Kailash. Following this, you will visit Om Parvat, a unique mountain with natural snow deposition forming the sacred 'Om' symbol. The day also includes a visit to Kali Mata Temple, a revered shrine dedicated to Goddess Kali. You will then return to Gunji/Nabi Village for an overnight stay.

DAY 6 Gunji/Nabi Village to Patal Bhuvneshwar

The return journey begins with a drive from Gunji/Nabi Village to Patal Bhuvneshwar. This destination is renowned for its underground cave temple, which holds significant mythological and spiritual importance. The cave is adorned with stalactites and stalagmites, believed to represent various deities and mythological figures. After exploring Patal Bhuvneshwar, you will stay overnight in the vicinity.

DAY 7 Patal Bhuvneshwar to Kathgodam/Haldwani drop

The final day involves traveling from Patal Bhuvneshwar back to Kathgodam.
This marks the end of the pilgrimage, with drop-off at Kathgodam. The journey concludes with cherished memories of the journey's spiritual and scenic experiences.
